STRENUOUS EFFORTS TO UNHORSE QUAY

The Man Whose Methods Gave the Republican Party Success.

EX-SECRETARY BAYARD'S SILVER VIEWS.

The Country, He Says, is Threatened With a Dire Calamity--- Delaware Democrats Sure of Success,

CLOSING UP ON QUAY.

UNBORSED IN THE SENATE-OPPOSITION IN HARRISHURG CONVENTION. PHILADELPHIA, June 20.—The Times to-day says editorially: "The opposition to Quay is playing its last cards not only with boldness but with consummate skill. It has unhorsed Quay in the Senate by the defeat of his candidate for sergest at arms after he had a ma-jority pledged to his man. It was a deliberately planned effort to overthrow the National Chairman in the Senate, and the secret ballot enabled the opposition to succeed.
"It is well understood that the defeat of Quay in the Senate was the preliminary battle of the general assault that is to be made against Quay at the Republican State Convention next week. The closing delegate elections swept away Quay's power in several of the leading counties; concerted appeals and threats have been hurled at him from every corner of the State to embarrass him in gathering the fruits of his vic tory by the nomination of his candidate or Governor, and during the last few days some of the weaker of his fol-lowers have wobbled half way or more over to the opposition.

"There is no dispute as to Quay's power to nominate Delameter, but he has been beset with every con-ceivable obstacle to half him in his purpose, and he must soon decide whether he will ride in front or ride behind. The declarations given to the public by such opposition leaders a Congressman Dalzell and Leader Ma gee, prophesying the defeat of Dela mater if nominated, are last cards which sweep as destructively as grape and cannister in close conflict, and Quay must decide whether he will lead or follow; whether he will nominate the man for whom he has elected the dele-gates, or whether he will retreat under

'Quay is nothing if not herole, and whatever he may do he will do boldly and make his impress upon the party. He knows that the retirement of Delamater would be a confession that his absolute individual mastery of the party in Pennsylvania is broken, but if that emergency should confront him, he will be as dangerous to his foes in no Republican victory in Pennsylvania this year that is not distinctly the victory of Quay.

"He gave the party its national vic-Without bis methods Harrison old have lost New York and Indiana; and Quay is bold enough to say that the men who rejoiced at the victory he won for the party shall not overthrow him for the methods which wrested the party mph from the very jaws of defeat He knows that the party has no hope of ture success save in the continued use of Quay's practical politics; and when-ever Quay is overthrown the temple goes down with him. The opposition to Quay is closing up on him for the debattle at Harrisburg next week, and the public will watch with interest the tactics of both sides and the final issue of the conflict."

BAYARD'S SILVER VIEWS.

THE EX-SECRETARY OF STATE PREDICTS

A DIRE CALAMITY. BALTIMORE, June 18 .- Thomas F. Bayard, ex Secretary of State, in a talk with a reporter, said that the people of his State were an honest, hard working class, in whose good judgment and sound sense he had the utmost confi-dence and he did not think anything Democratic success in Delaware. H had not descended he added to factional politics and could give no information on that point. It was too early, he said, to discus-national politics with the view of saming candidates, and the most im portant thing, naturally, was the dire calamity with which the country was threatened by saddling it with a sliver basis, as was indicated by the vote

FOUND DEAD ON A MARSH.

Supposed to Have Been Drowned, But It May Be Murder,

BOSTON, June 20 .- On June 3 Lewis J. Brown, 20 years old and recently from Nova Scotia, was found dead on a marsh at Dorchester, on a bank sloping into the water. The medical examiner gave drowning as the cause of death It has since been learned that his coat, vest and hat were found under some grass quite a distance from the body, Everything of value had been removed from the clothing, and his empty pocket-book was also found with several papers which had been torn into bits. It is also asserted that the shirt collar and bosom were well starched and showed no action of water.

Brown worked as bookkeeper for a stairbuilder named Lynch, and during a recent strike of Lynch's men took strong ground against the strikers. The police are looking into the matter.

A GANG OF YOUNG THIEVES.

The Sensational Dime Novel Bears Fruit in West Virginia.

WHEELING, June 20 .- The authorities of Martinsburg, Jefferson County, have succeeded in breaking up a remarkable nest of youthful criminals, and four of the number were landed in the penitentiary at Moundsville yesterday. The dime novel and an inherent tendency to lawlessness seem to be allke responsible for the depredations of the gang, the members of which, although none were above 14, had progressed as far as stealing horses and running them off and robbing stores.

The leader of the gang was Lee Twy-man, a colored youth of only 11 years, who goes to the penlientlary for ten years, having been convicted of stealing a horse and two carriages. Ed. Allen, George Fry, and Howard Feidinger, white, whose ages range from 12 to 14, were convicted of burglary and got two

Two adult members of the gang. John Stratter and William Lawson, got twelve and ten years each for horse-stealing.

The boat while moored at this village put among a lot of foreign flags the rebel flag. Inside of ten minutes the whole town was out. 'As the crowd was growing menacing the fown authorities waited on the manager of the show and requested him to remove his flags. He flatly refused at first, but after a long discussion, during which time the crowd was asking that the manager be brought out and beaten, he consented and hauled the flags down putting up small flags of national

FAVORING THE SUGAR TRUST.

Spreckels Charges Customs Officials With Discriminating Against Him, PHILADELPHIA, June 20. - Claus Spreckels, the sugar refiner, through his attorney, has made formal complaint to Secretary Windom that the New York custom house has been discriminating in its polariscope tests of imported German beet sugars in favor f the sugar trust and against the Phila-lelphia refiner and to his detriment to the amount of $10,000 on each cargo he imports. He says: "I do not make a specific charge against any officer of the customs. I do not know a single dividual having anything whatever to do with the examination or testing of sugars at New York; but in the face of the evidence before me I boldly assert that we have been wronged, and I call upon the honorable Secretary of the Treasury to protect us in this matter.

JOHN WANAMAKER'S CONTRIBUTION, t mays: "The official records of the Na-Honal Republican Campsign Committee show where the money to buy the pur-chasable vote of Indiana came from, John Wanamaker of Philadelphia, Benamin Harrison's Postmaster General was a heavy contributor. In February a year ago he said:

was a heavy contributor. In February a year ago he said:

'When Quay sent for me I was surprised; I had no more idea of what he wanted with me than you might have if be telegraphed for you. But I knew he was not the kind of man to send for me unless he had haportant business with me, so I went. Then be told me that the National Republican Committee needed money, and his scheme for my raising it. I at first declined to have anything to do with it. I had very little hope of defeating Cleveland, and still less Mrs. Cleveland, who is justly popular with the whole sountry, and whom I admire greatly myself, and I didn't want to get on a sinking ship. He wared the matter, told me why he felt more of corrulag the effection if he had the maney. Even then I hesitated, and asked three weeks for consideration. He agreed, and I falked with our leading manufacturers, men whose names are the best in the land-such men as Washburne and Amos Lawence's grantson, and a dozen others I could name—men who would never have given a dellar for dishonest uses, even if I had been willing to ask it—and at the end of the three weeks I told Quay I would undertaketo raise the money if he would allow in to establish a Manufacturers' Rureau and have a voice in the disposition of the money. I don't mean that we insisted en known when it was done with every dullar of it. I dish't want to know When I sell a suit of chothes, I don't inhaveing what was dear with every fuller of it. I didn't want to been. When I sell a suit of choles, I don't medet upon being told just where these clothes are going. My responsibility cases when I furnish a good attele at a fair price. What I did insist upon was that I should be able to satisfy the men who trusted me with their money that it was used for the purpose for which they subscribed it, and that guaranty Mr. Quay gave me. That is how there came to be a Manufacturers' Bureau."

ON THE SUBJECT OF THE LODGE BLEC the article goes on to show what sort of officials in the South will have control of elections under the law: "Judge Swayne of the Northern district of Florida makes a companion portrait to Judge Woods of Indiana. Chief Engineer Ackenhell and a Fireman Killed Several Persons Injured...Their Names.

PHILADELPHIA, June 20.-The Baltimore and Ohlo express train which left Washington at 10:30 o'clock last night, composed of two Pullman sleepers and several passenger coaches, left the track at Childs Station, near Singerly, Md., at I o'clock this mornlog, and went over an embankment. Chief Engineer Charles Ackenhell of the Staten Island Rapid Transit Company, an adjunct of the B. & O. Co., who occupied a berth in one of the sleepers, was killed and several other people, whose names have not yet been learned, were injured. The body of Mr. Ackenhell was brought to this city this morning and will probably be forwarded to New York this afternoon. The accident is said to have been caused by the breaking of the driving red of the engine. HOW THE ACCIDENT HAPPENED.

Fireman John McNamura was killed also. The train was composed of a baggage car, smoker, day coach, and three sleepers. The train had just entered on a bridge across a gully when the piston red on the engine broke. The fireman was knocked off his seat in the engine and precipitated into the gully breaking every bone in his body and killing him instantly. The coaches left the track, but the amoker and day coach did not have the bridge. "Bombshoils are falling thick in the lottery ranks. To-day Presper Lamal, a prominent importer of this city, tele-graphed to Senator J. Numa Agustin, a lottery' man, that he was authorized by a Belgian and French syndicate to offer the State $1,300,000 a year for a 25-year charter for a lottery on the same busis as the Morris offer, and asking bim to present it to the Legislature. There are now two propositions form-ally before the Legislature—one from Newgass of Lewion, through Henry Beer, and one from this Belgian and French syndicate, through Presper Lamal, both offering more than Morris offers, while there is a third from some

New Yorkers, which is in charge of Isadore Newman, which has not yet been formally offered.
